Description

Rare Large Art Deco wall light with overflow glassware. The large molding is reminiscent of Art Deco boat chandeliers. Red copper patina by electrolysis on bronze, dark varnish for the old patina on the angles. Downward light diffraction system thanks to the original diffuser. Superb condition with some slight defects due to its age but very acceptable. The electrical system is refurbished in our workshops, retaining the 5 original B22 sockets. 5 LEDs supplied. This is my first encounter with this type of lighting since the start of my career as an antique dealer in 1975. None of my searches came up with this article which is not referenced anywhere. This is probably a special order, the bronze structure taking up the frames of the large barque chandeliers of the Art Deco era. The patina is
