Description

David & Goliath

Later silver print signed in fine marker in the lower right margin.

One of the most famous photos of Fidel Castro during his first official stay in the United States from April 16 to 26, 1959. This photo was taken on the morning of April 19 at the Lincoln Monument in Washington. Fidel Castro placed a wreath there as a sign of respect from the very young Cuban revolutionary government towards its big American brother. Photo taken by Alberto Korda, Fidel Castro's official photographer, known worldwide for having immortalized Che Guevara on March 5, 1960, a portrait that went around the world "Guerillero Heroico".
Photographer's dry stamps, one in the lower right corner and another on the back. Dimensions
