

Antique Meiji Period Japanese Kutani Porcelain Bowl

600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 18 cm

Height : 7,5 cm

Description

Decorated with characters around the edge in a snowy outdoor scene decorated with trees and a pavilion.

In the center a crown of flowers, friezes with pretty frames presenting scenes with characters and animals enhanced with motifs representing a bird in places lightly painted with gold in light relief. Japanese work from the province of Kaga Kutani during the Meiji period (1868 - 1912), intended in particular for the European market on the occasion of the major universal exhibitions. Signed below by the artist with old collector's labels.

Diameter: 18 cm

Height: 7.5 cm

Shipping by secure Colissimo with insurance.

Dealer

Chimères d'antan

Art Asie

Mobile : 0609372282

38 rue Rieussec

Viroflay 78220