Description

Typical cane from popular folklore, Carved from boxwood. .This monoxyl work in a very hard wood is particularly remarkable, as evidenced by the details visible in the photos.The cane is decorated with a beautiful caricature devil's head, carved with pretty details, such as on the hair, ears, mouth and eyes.The object is in good general condition, without breakage, and has a beautiful patina, preserved "in its own juice", which accentuates its authentic charm.to note: Small crack on the top of the head due to the drying of the wood.Intriguing symbol, this representation of the devil, (A symbolic explanation among many others it's worth what it's worth!: the devil is a fallen angel from the garden of Eden, "he comes from there, therefore he knows the way" , This evokes the long path of
