Description

Large plaster group depicting a "sleeping Cupid / Eros" after the work of the Italian sculptor Giovacchino Fortini (1670-1736). This large, very decorative plaster has taken on a beautiful exterior patina over time and has in places the texture of a branch of white coral. We offer it in this beautiful old patina with some gaps, holes and various erosions which give it a great charm and make it all the interest and particularity. NB/ Shipping possible for France via Colissimo followed: 30 euros.
