Set of six antique prints: medical photographs depicting the progress of the same gynecological operation, probably a hysterectomy. I'm selling the six photographs together because, from a historical and didactic point of view, it is together that they offer the most interesting medical-historical testimony.

Condition: generally good, with traces of age. THE PICTURES ARE PART OF THE DESCRIPTION. As the number of photos is limited, please contact me if you would like more.

Period: early 20th century circa 1900 / 1905.
