Description

Small jumping chest of drawers, Parisian work, opening with two identical drawers. The band around the edges of these drawers is made of mahogany and rosewood, arranged horizontally, decorated in the center with a composition of light wood and dark wood in vertical veneer. Everything is highlighted by a set of nets. Each drawer is fitted with a functional original lock with bronze entry and rear key. The ring handles with mascaron are authentic. The two front uprights, with fixed cut sides, are in rosewood and mahogany. The feet end in small hooves. The rear projection part is also in rosewood with mahogany framing. The sides are shaped in the same spirit as the facade. This piece of furniture is topped with rounded St Anne marble at the front and with projections at the back. The
