painter. In 1934 the City of Paris and then the State made their first purchases from it, inaugurating a series of acquisitions which continues today. Likewise, foreign museums bought his works from 1937. His painting represents the contemporary French figurative school abroad. In 1950, he exhibited at the French Art Institute in London, in 1954 at the Wildenstein Gallery in New York. A first retrospective took place at the Museum of Fine Arts in Bordeaux in 1965 and others followed until 1987. We present here a true format, from the artist's best period and in impeccable condition.
