Description

Vintage wrought iron floor lamp in brutalist style from the mid-20th century from the 50s and 60s.

Very interesting work approaching a sculpture-type work of art in its creative side.

Surely a unique piece that can be integrated into a modern interior as a very original creation and, what's more, as a truly extraordinary light fixture.

Note the very beautiful work of the metal pieces evoking foliage or vertical algae. Possibility of sending in France and throughout the world by professional carrier or by secure package.
