Description

Parrot coat rack, model n°10.401, in curved beech in mahogany tone by Thonet. Founded by Mickael Thonet (1796-1871), the eponymous company was the first to use a process for bending wood. This coat rack consists of a fixed crown with eight S-shaped hooks. The intermediate part has an umbrella stand whose supports extend to form four double legs. The elegant, clean lines will complement any interior style, whether classic, modern or contemporary.
