Description

Bronze table mirror from the Empire period. The decoration of the mirror is decorated with a laurel frieze. (diam. 11 cm) The cherub is beautifully carved and detailed: the wings, the drapery and especially the care of the hands attests to this. (h 7 .5 cm) The child enhances the rosettes he holds. The base is framed by a pointed edging. (h 17 cm) The frame of this base sits a palmette motif on a cartridge background. (9cm) Rare piece. Possible delivery not included in the price.
