Description

Framed etching from the Apse of Notre Dame de Paris by Louis ORR (1879-1961). The copper engraving comes from a plate from the copper plate collection of the Chalcographie du Louvre, an institution created in 1797. The oldest come from the Royal collections dating from the 17th century. It was Louis XIV who encouraged the art of engraving and the execution of his orders were carried out by the great artists of the time. The engraving of the plate which used for the etching of Notre Dame was made after the spire was built in 1879 by Viollet-le-Duc. The printing sheet is light beige and framed by a light oak strip. In good used condition. POSSIBILITY OF SENDING, careful reinforced packaging, registered with signature, insurance and tracking on the internet by its number (shipping costs).
