Description

Important lamp base in Limoges or Old Paris porcelain resting on a circular brass base decorated with a line of pearls. It is prettily decorated on its front with a portrait of a young woman holding a rose in her left hand. On the back side, a stylized pattern made in fine gold completes this decoration. The two sockets represent a garland of flowers in relief, enhanced with fine gold. The electrification of our lamp is in good condition, it is equipped to receive a bayonet bulb. This porcelain dates from the first half of the 19th century, it is from the Louis-Philippe period. The gilding shows signs of wear that are entirely normal given its age and use. PLEASE NOTE: this lamp is sold without a lampshade. The lampshade in photo number three is only decorative. Dimensions height at the neck
