

Famille Rose Enamelled Mug With Equestrian Scene - China 18th Qianlong Period

1 380 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Height : 14,2cm

Description

Porcelain bell-shaped mug in Famille Rose enamels decorated with an equestrian scene depicting a rider, the main character in the scene, surrounded by maids. At one end of the design, a man is holding the horse's reindeer, while at the other end, a man is watching the scene under a tree with a fan in his hand.

The end of the handle is in the shape of a ruyi.

CHINA XVIII

Qianlong period (1736-1795)

Height: 14.2cm

Neck diameter: 9.9cm

Provenance: Édouard Cochet Collection

For an identical form, see :

Dealer

Galerie Drake

Chinese Porcelain & Chinese Works of Art

Mobile : 0689483023

32 Avenue de la République

Paris 75011

- Jorge Welsh, Tankards and Mugs: Drinking
from Chinese Export Porcelain, Fig 121, p.258

The decoration on this tankard is particularly accomplished, with vivid glazes.

Very good condition, slight wear to the glazes.

More information and photos on request.