Description

Large statue of a bishop in polychrome earthenware from Grand Feu. The bishop represented here, bearded, dressed in a large blue and yellow cape and manganese robe. He wears a pectoral cross around his neck and a bishop's mitre. As is: (Restorations to the hands and miter. Cooking cracks on the back and under the pectoral cross). A great technical feat for an earthenware of this size. Height: 70 cm. 18th century.
