Description

This piece of furniture is composed on the front of three identical drawers whose moiré mahogany fronts are highlighted with molded strips. The upper drawer is fitted with a functional original lock with key and brass entry. The following drawers are only fitted with simple lens buttons. The sides are crafted in the same spirit, namely, with Cuban mahogany veneer and baguette. The uprights on the front and on the sides are fluted, they stand out on four massive legs turned in a spindle with fixed grooves. The top, made of a single board, is surrounded by an overflow strip at the back and sides. This small chiffonier chest of drawers will make an excellent piece of extra furniture wherever you deem its presence necessary. ***** Period: Mid-19th Century Excellent condition. Waxed finish.
