Description

Bernard VIÉ (born in 1947), painter and sculptor. He studied architecture at the École Nationale Supérieure des Beaux-Arts. He then divided his time between his profession as an architect and the visual arts to which he devoted himself full time from 1988. Bernard Vié has always sought the grace of gesture and the delicate curves associated with the dynamism of the subject in a tender environment. and poetic. Bernard Vié has regularly exhibited in France, Germany, Italy, Spain, Belgium and Hong Kong. This superb work sculpted in bronze titled "The young man and the bird" is a reflection of the great talent of this artist who suggests more than he shows by emphasizing the expression of essential points. It is signed on the left foot; it bears the foundry stamp La Plaine and the numbering 2/3 on the
