Description

Paris porcelain vase from the 19th century
Napoleon III On one side, a bouquet of bindweed flowers in pink and blue tones; on the other side, a flight of 2 brightly colored ducks above a pond. Romantic flowers decorate the edge of the shore. The neck of the vase is flared and indented, with 9 cut sides, in a deep pink and highlighted with a fine gold border. Under the base, we can distinguish 2 initials: C F, a number: 835, the number 1 and a nail trace. The decoration is obviously hand painted.
