Description

Pierre ALLARD Norman artist. The view from my sister's house, 2007 Oil on canvas Size: 73 x 92 cm Signed, titled and dated on the back. Painting in perfect condition. Without frame. Sold with invoice and certificate of authenticity. Fast and careful shipping with insurance. A Norman painter, I grew up not far from Giverny, from Chatou, between Honfleur and Paris where I studied. Coming from a family of designers and collectors, I was declared blind at the age of 7 by doctors. Recovered a few months later, I exchanged my first drawings for a few marbles; a lot of drawing, since I was very young, oil on canvas since I was seventeen. I never stopped painting, fascinated by the painters of my region, André Raffin, with whom I had the chance to go, Pinchon, Louvrier, and better known painters

Various and varied exhibitions in the Normandy region and in Paris since 1989; The school of Rouen and Paris, the Fauves, the Nabis, the Impressionists, the Expressionists, I draw my inspiration from where I live, mainly painting what I have seen or experienced. I position myself in a backward-looking movement, halfway between modern and contemporary painters, nostalgic for the best of the last century.
