Description

Superb dressing table forming a lady's desk in molded and carved solid walnut. It opens with a belt drawer, the whipped base consists of a massive curved upright over the entire height, it is crossed by two embedded uprights, a low crossbar and a spacer, the top has an inlaid decoration illustrating two bees on fern leaves in mesh plane wood. The upper part is composed of a pivoting mirror with scalloped cutouts, it is inlaid with orchids, reeds, and ferns, it is adorned with two circular consoles supported by woody uprights. Handle and supports in gilded bronze, hot stamped, we have a desk model. Remarkable quality of cabinetmaking with superb patina!
