

Earthenware Pitcher By Juliette Derel Rivier Vallauris

1 800 EUR

Signature : Juliette Derel Vallauris

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Earthenware

Length : 18cm

Height : 25,5cm

Description

JULIETTE DEREL (1918-2007) Enamelled earthenware pitcher, domed body topped with a flared cylindrical neck and a vertical grip, abstract yellow and blue enameled decoration on a pinkish-brown background. Incised handwritten signature "Juliette Derel Rivier" on the reverse of the base. Circa 1956-1959 Top. 25.5 cm - Length. 18 cm This pitcher is listed on the Juliette Derel Committee website. Juliette Derel (1918 - 2007) French ceramist born in Normandy, Juliette Derel studied at the Beaux-Arts in Tours. At the beginning of the 1950s, she settled in Vallauris and married Jean Rivier. They worked together until their separation in 1961. Vallauris was then a mecca for art and ceramics, where she met Picasso and her nephew Javier Vilato. Her work is prolific: creator of utilitarian pieces (mirrors,

Dealer

Cornershop Design

20th Century Design

Tel : 0622750609

Mobile : +33 (0) 622750609

Paris 75004

dishes, vases), she is moving more and more towards sculptural works, such as these candlesticks or coat racks on metal frames. Bibliography : "Juliette Derel Céramiques" by François Lippmann and Marie-Pascale Suhard, Editions Snoeck.