Description

Beautiful and rare workmanship for this restoration period frame, ogee molding, delicately enhanced by a beautiful rose and floral falls in each of its corners. Finish: conservation of engraved and patinated gold leaf, creation of an old-fashioned patina in ocher-sien tone on the throat and reliefs, placement of gold leaf like a flash of light on its decorations, slices of patina in a dark bronze tone, contemporary ice. Wooden floor background. Can be installed in both directions. Reference: Château de Chenonceau
