Description

Porcelain inkwell representing a "King Charles" dog, signed "JP" for Jacob Petit.

Jacob Mordochée known as Jacob Petit, born and died in Paris (1796 - 1868) is a 19th century French porcelain manufacturer.

Its name remains attached to the originality of its production. Abundant and diverse, previously considered excessively in bad taste, its pieces are now sought after for their originality, the quality of their finish and the richness of their polychrome.

This rare piece is in good condition.

A true collector's item.
