Neoclassical Landscape

4 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 184

Height : 138

Description

Neoclassical landscape with two figures, a man and a woman, perhaps a deity, moving in a landscape, with Roman ruins. In the background a river sinks into the landscape, a village being visible in the background. The painter perfectly masters the effects of atmospheric perspective. The painting is re-canvassed and framed in its gilded Empire frame with gold leaf decorated with palmettes and grapes of the heart. Without frame, it measures 121.5x176 cm.
