Description

Very elegant two bodies in blond walnut, late 19th, early 20th, probably by Georges Nowak. Typical of the Nancy school and the Art Nouveau movement, very well sculpted with vine branches. We find the Majorelle spirit through plant shapes and openwork wood. The windows are original. Very good manufacturing quality demonstrated by the assembly of the panels and different amounts. Original keyholes. Height 249 Width 164 Depth 54 Shipping possible in France and internationally
