Description

Louis XVI period straight flap secretary in solid walnut. Very sober provincial model but with this little chic of flat columns which give it a touch of elegance. It opens onto a drawer in the pediment and 3 drawers in the lower part. The flap reveals a leather tray (well worn), 5 storage drawers and a shelf for storing books. Furniture in house condition, cracks, some stains, to be re-waxed, in short, a beautiful 18th century piece of furniture in its original state. Period late 18th century.
