

Silver Coffee Service France Around 1900, Empire Style

4 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Height : 28 cm

Description

Silver tea or coffee service resting on a pedestal, three pieces, including a jug, a milk jug, a sugar bowl. A gadrooned ring separates the body from the base. Corolas and friezes of water leaves decorate each element of the service. The spout depicting a horse's head, the handles of the coffee maker and the milk jug are made of ebony with attachments in the shape of palm leaves. The handles of the sugar bowl are lizard-shaped. Empire style. Silver 950/1000; Minerva hallmarks Hallmark Master Goldsmith: Victor Boivin, Paris circa 1900 Max height: 28 cm Length: 23 cm Jug: capacity - 1.1L Weight: 736 gr Sugar bowl: Height: 17.5 cm Length: 18 cm Weight: 592 gr Pot milk: Height: 17 cm Weight: 240 gr Very good condition Small insignificant dents

Dealer

Lucas L&E

Argenterie ancienne, Arts liturgiques, Arts Russes, Arts de la tables

Mobile : 0615687757

Maisons-Laffitte 78600