Description

Iconic and rare old edition sculpture "Bacchanal Dancer" from Art Deco period 1928 made by Janle for the Le Verrier workshops. This is one of the first models created by Le Verrier because it's embedded in marble and not screwed. It represents a graceful dancer unrolling a majestic drape with geometric lines, on a thick portor marble base. Very beautiful original green nuanced patina. Iron art sculpture signed "Janle" on the drape and produced by the Max le Verrier workshops.

Good original condition, usual wear on patina

Height: 13,0"

Height of marble: 2,0"

Width : 7,9"
