Description

Group of bathers GENOLHAC Pierre Albert Born February 27, 1896. Died in June 1964. 20th century. French. Painter of figures, nudes, landscapes, watercolorist, pastelist, engraver, illustrator. He studied in Nice, then was a student at the School of Decorative Arts in 1917-1918. In 1919, he received the advice of Paul Sérusier, in 1923, that of Maurice Denis. He exhibited fairly regularly in Paris, since 1925 at the Salon d'Automne, since 1947 at the Salon du Dessin et de la Peinture à l'eau. In other places, he appeared in particular for wood engraving. He also showed his work in his personal exhibitions: in Paris, Besançon, Colmar, Nice, Nîmes, Marseille. In the very diversified techniques that he practiced, he was above all a painter of landscapes, brought from Nice, Provence, the Cévennes,
