Description

Suspension in metal, brass and blown glass in pink and gold.

The brass ceiling light is connected by a metal rod to another brass part used to hold the pink glass.

Overall good condition, we note a small shock on the ceiling light and some traces of oxidation.

Perfect condition of the blown glass part.

French work from the mid-20th century.

All our lighting fixtures are completely restored by our workshop, both structurally and electrically, and are therefore in perfect working order. Bulbs to use: B22 type bayonet bulb.

Possibility of collection on site, or contact us for possible shipping.
