Description

Lost wax cast bronze sculpture woman and child early 20th century art deco period. Very beautiful creation where we see the hand and inspiration of the artist thanks to the quality of the cast iron with the perciré wax technique. Signature of the artist on the base. Note the influence of the classical school and in the movement that of Rodin or Camille Claudel revisited by the personality of the sculptor. Very beautiful work of art to collect. Possibility of sending in France and throughout the world by professional carrier or by secure package.
