Antonin. The production of glassware will shift towards artistic creation. Between 1889 and 1891, the two brothers prepared the creation of an artistic department which was entrusted to Antonin. Auguste gives him all the means to work to follow the trail created by Émile Gallé in Art Nouveau glassware. The Universal Exhibition of 1900 brought international recognition with the awarding of a Grand Prize. In 1901, Daum founded the Nancy School with the artists Majorelle and E.Gallé, the spearhead of Art Nouveau.
