

Octagonal Sundial Signed Hager In Gilted Brass Made Circa 1680 In Its Decorated Case

10 000 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Brass

Length : 7 cm

Width : 6 cm

Description

Universal octogonal sundial signed Hager in gilt brass with the family particularity of a weather vane of winds.

It lays in its leather case with geometric designs in glazed leather and bears at back exclusively the latitudes of German cities, Amsterdam, Prague and Vienna.

Maker : Johann Melchior Hager 1642/1713, active in Frankfurt and related to Wolfgang Hager active in Wolffenbüttel at the same period whose an example is described and illustrated p 174/175 in "Sundials - Dominique & Eric Delalande - Paris 2013".

Reference : "Uhren und Wissenschaftliche

Dealer

Galerie DELALANDE

Marine & Sciences, Tobacco & Opium objects, Canes, Curiosa

Tel : 00 33 1 42 60 19 35

Mobile : 00 33 6 60 90 21 59

35 rue de Lille

Paris 75007

Instrumente der Familie Hager - Günther
Oestmann -Städtisches Museum Braunschweig".

Frankfurt made circa 1690.