Description

Games table with folding top, Louis XV period, inlaid on all sides, decorated with a rich decoration of gilded bronzes.
It has a drawer on the front fitted with a lock and its period key.
The scrolled top is inlaid with butterfly wings with strips of light wood forming volutes.
The 4 feet are highlighted with beaded gilt bronze falls and end with a sabot.
The top pivots on one axis and opens in two flaps.
It is made of Mahogany, surrounded by molding.
In its center, an emerald green fabric with a silky appearance (in good condition) forms the oval play mat.
This folding game table transforms into an elegant console when folded, its large drawer giving it another use.
