Description

Between the end of the 19th century and the beginning of the 20th century, Chantilly porcelain was very fashionable, particularly the Japanese style Kakiemon decorations with flowered hedges. Manufactures in the Paris region have reissued pieces from the 18th century. Among the best known, Maison Samson. Traditionally, the decorations are painted and the bronze mounts are carefully crafted. Height of the vase: 20 cm and the lamp: 47 cm. Original electrical assembly (wires and plug removed). Free shipping for mainland France.
