

Haviland Dinner Set 12 Plates And 2 Dishes In Limoges Porcelain Thistle Gold Monogrammed Cor

1 000 EUR

Signature : Haviland Limoges

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Haviland Fte Plates set in Porcelaine of Limoges Thistle gold with letter cOr in golden1 plat 32 cm diam12 flate plates (24.5 cm diam)1 dessert plate (22cm diam)Haviland Limoges thistle modelin perfect conditionwww.antiquites-biau.com In 1842, David Haviland made Limoges, the world capital of porcelain, a cradle of art without limit. He began to write the story of the Haviland family, a name synonymous with the art of French luxury, which has lasted till this day. David Haviland, a trader, created an import company of ceramics and porcelain in 1838 in New York.Fascinated by the Limousin "white gold", he travelled the Atlantic to settle in Limoges in 1842, where he founded his own manufacturer. The porcelain of Limoges experienced an unprecedented bloom,

Dealer

Antiquités Biau

Antiquités Biau, specialized in boulle marquetry 19th

Mobile : 06 08 90 94 54

Manduel 30129

and David Haviland became world-acclaimed for his innovative eye and creative genius. In 1853, he obtained a gold medal at the Crystal Palace Exhibition in New York, and the French government later saluted his talent by awarding him a silver medal at the Universal Exposition in Paris in 1855. The largest royal families and Heads of state from around the world have succumbed to the charm and exceptional prestige of this porcelain. Among them include the wife of Napoleon III, the Empress Eugenie, President Jacques Chirac, Prince Rainier of Monaco, as well as Presidents Roosevelt and Lincoln, to name a few. The Maison Haviland has been involved in French excellence for more than 175 years, sublimating the finest restaurants in the world's most outstanding palaces, such as the Ritz Paris, Le Dorchester in London, the Shangri-La Hotel, Paris. Among them we find the wife of Napoleon III: Empress Eugénie, President Jacques Chirac, Prince Rainier of Monaco, as well as Presidents Roosevelt and Lincoln, to name but a few. Maison Haviland has been contributing to French excellence for more than 175 years by sublimating the most beautiful tables of the greatest Palaces in the world such as the Ritz Paris, The Dorchester in London, The Shangri-la Hotel Paris.