Jean-Claude Novaro (1943-2014)
Master glassmaker, born in 1943 in Antibes, he was trained by Eloi Monod. He created his own glassworks in 1977. A born inventor and astonishing colorist, he continues to work on the reactions of glass to enamels, oxides, gold and silver inclusions. Pure research which always takes him further in his creations, pieces as unexpected as they are new.
