Description

Elegant balcony railing or French window from the Louis XV period, in perfect condition. Three pieces are offered to you, adorned with a monogram in an oval medallion in its center, flanked by stocks enriched with a play of scrolls in the background. The whole thing is forged with riveted mortises and tenons, like their chisel-molded handrails. The section of the irons of this work is 16 mm². This ironwork comes from a private mansion in Besançon. They can be sold separately at a price of EUR1,600 including tax each. You can visit our site:
