Description

Gilded bronze sculpture from the early 20th century in art nouveau style and announcing art deco by Luis de Périnat. This artist was a Spanish sculptor and diplomat 1872 1923 attached to the Spanish embassy in Paris and had an artist's workshop with students like Sébastien Miranda. He was the lover of the dancer Cleo de Mérode, whose sculpture he created adorning her tomb at Father The chair . Present at the Royal Museum of Fine Arts of Belgium. Exceptional work for its quality of modeling, its golden patina and its rarity on the art market. Possibility of sending in France and throughout the world by secure package.
