Description

Alabaster and gilded bronze clock Decorated with golden vine leaves delicately painted on blue enamel. The identically decorated dial bears blue enamelled Roman numerals on cartridges. The clock rests on a wooden base covered in velvet, it is protected by an original glass globe. She has her key and her pendulum. The movement bears a marking on the back indicating the award of a medal of honor. It works, but could use a slight overhaul. This clock, bursting with luminosity through the freshness of its colors and the perfection of its condition, will bring real radiance to an interior.
