Description

Oil on canvas by the painter George Edme Lefebvre, representing a landscape from northern France. We know of him from landscapes of the Somme, he is notably present at the Le Touquet museum. Here we can see a woman at work in a field, during a harvest, under a gray but bright sky. Signed lower left. Dating from the end of the 19th or the very beginning of the 20th century. Two old small restorations visible on the back. Quick and neat delivery. Payment preferably by check or transfer, Paypal accepted.
