

Large Bronze Of A Young Fauna Playing The Pan Flute, 19th Century

2 950 EUR

Signature : Jules Jacques Labatut (1851-1935)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Height : 48 cm

Description

Jules Jacques Labatut, Young Fauna With Pan Flute, 19th Century.

Young faun dancing and playing the pan flute , superb large bronze signed Labatut on the terrace.

a bronze of very good quality casting and carving, it is remarkable for its finesse in the smallest detail:

the hair on the legs, the expressive face, look at the eyes! Particularly well-kept ears, etc., he is only based on one leg and everything is in the movement;
he seems to us to be dancing while playing his flute as if taken to life.

This model is large and based on a large base in

Dealer

Antoine Claeys - Maison du XVème
antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 06 85 53 27 42

24 grande Rue

Nogent l'Artaud 02 310

molded sea green marble decorated with a row of bronze pearls.

the brown patina is also particularly successful and intact.

it is signed Labatut prix de Rome on the terrace and also includes a foundry mark Gilleau fecit Paris.

our mythologically inspired bronze reveals the talent of the sculptor with a dynamic, joyful and lively subject.

dimensions: 48 cm high on a base 15.5 cm in diameter.

we deliver and ship all over the world, please contact us for an accurate quote.

Jules Jacques Théodore Dominique Labatut, born Jacques Théodore Dominique Labatut on July 30, 1851 in Toulouse and died on April 29, 1935 in Biarritz, is a French sculptor.