Description

Rectangular gold tablet case with hinged lid. On each of these faces, two miniatures fixed under glass in an oval shape represent a return from fishing in an idyllic atmosphere. Above, on the lid, the words SOUVENIR and FRIENDSHIP stand out in a plume of dried flowers. The reserves surrounded by a chiseled gold belt are applied to a purple enamel background. The sides, base and lid of the case are highlighted with plates of colored mother-of-pearl alternating with flower motifs in yellow gold. Push-button clasp, gold-tipped pencil.

P for Paris 1778.

Two eagle heads.
