Description

Magnificent lectern / desk by the artist CeM Thiauy - dating from the 80s - greatly inspired by art nouveau and art deco in its form and marquetry work, as well as by the design of the 1960s to 1970s. This work of art is made of marquetry of different species, including precious and semi-precious such as lemon tree, elm, rosewood and light oak. The lectern / desk is in good condition, despite some chips and losses due to use of time.
