Biography Spanish artist (1934 - 2019)

The career of a Spanish artist Pacheco started in Madrid before moving to Paris in 1962, where he remained for sixteen years. Once there, his style evolved towards pop art and new realism with a language reminiscent of artists like David Hockney while retaining echoes of expressionism. Pacheco received several grants, including one awarded by the Fundación Juan March in 1967 and another obtained in 1980 by the Spanish Ministry of Culture.

Period: Mid-20th century, around the 1960 1970
