Description

Elegant little domed box placed on a square base. Hinged, this box is guilloché on all its sides with very fine parallel lines. In addition to the gardening and music motifs that decorate the sides of the box, there is also that of the quiver giving the box its romantic character. The base, guilloché with very fine parallel lines, is punctuated with small polka dots. It is centered with a very finely chiseled rosette in two-tone gold.
