Description

Rare letter opener in the shape of a dagger or knife, most certainly in silver (foreign work) finely chiseled with plant decoration and small chimeras, handle decorated with a beautiful feline head, decoration enhanced with enamels, turquoise and small garnet-colored stones, from the 19th century. This paper opener is in good general condition, very good quality. Note: missing a few stones on the handle, the end of the paper cutter is a little twisted, some dirt, micro-scratches and wear from time, see photos.
