Description

India, first third of the 20th century, very beautiful elephant harnessed in ebony wood made in one piece. The tusks and nails are made of bone. It is decorated with a brass ornament and colored stones. On his back is a removable palanquin. A charming object with a delicate design, its precious appearance made it the ideal welcome gift or reward for a person of quality. Height 22 cm. Length 16.5cm. The scale indicator in the last photograph is a small model of a lighter from a brand known to everyone. Good condition except for a slight old intervention on a nail on a hind leg. Without impact on the beautiful aesthetic of this piece. No accident or crack. We take particular care with our packaging by using optimum protection. The shipment is made with insurance included.
