Description

A wire table from the second half of the 19th century in the Biedermeier style. A small piece of furniture, a little forgotten today, but once indispensable for a housewife for needlework.

The table has a hinged top with numerous compartments, all supported by a turned leg on the base. Very good condition after professional renovation. Today it is ideal for an entryway or a cabinet for important little things. We recommend. Origin - Northern Europe, Wood - mahogany, Year - circa 1860 Dimensions: height 72 cm / width 58 cm / depth 40 cm,
