

Tomb Chest Of Drawers Stamped By François Fleury - Louis XV Period

9 400 EUR

Signature : François Fleury

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Marquetry

Description

Tomb-shaped chest of drawers in satin wood and amaranth on the front and in plum wood on the sides.

It opens with 5 drawers in 3 rows, the central drawer of the upper row is blocked by a small peg allowing it to be "secret".

Adorned with a very beautiful decoration of chiseled bronzes and gold varnish, it is topped with beige marble veined with gray and white.

It is stamped by master cabinetmaker François Fleury and the Jurande JME hallmark.

Work from the Louis XV period around 1745/1750.
